

Department Intent

Our intent is that the Modern Foreign Languages curriculum:

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• develops key knowledge, understanding and skills related to speaking, reading, writing and listening.• broadens horizons by highlighting career and mobility opportunities available to those with language skills.• encourages positive attitudes and a sympathetic approach to other cultures and civilisations.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• presents opportunities to apply knowledge, understanding and skills to varying contexts.• enables communication with a wide range of audiences.• provides opportunities to form accurate judgements and conclusions based on technical accuracy of language.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• creates opportunities to work independently and as part of a team in varied activities, contributing to the development of reading, writing and speaking.• encourages active participation.• strives to foster and encourage a lasting enjoyment and appreciation of Modern Languages and their associated culture and traditions.• provides experiences to use language skills in real life contexts.