

History

GCSE Learning Journey

Democracy and Dictatorship in Germany, 1890-1945?

Your journey continues onto your next GCSE topic

How did WW2 effect Germany and the Nazis?

How did people resist the Nazi state?

How did the Nazis persecute Jewish people and what was the 'Final Solution'?

How was propaganda and censorship used to control the people?

What ideas did the Nazis have about cultural activities?

Was fear and repression an effective method of control?

What were the Nazis racial policies?

How far was the Church under Hitler's control?

How did Nazi social changes affect women and the young?

How did Nazi economic policies affect the people of Germany?

Part 3- Life in Nazi Germany

What was the Wall Street Crash and how did this affect Germany?

Why did people turn to the Nazi party for support?

How did Hitler's appeal gain the Nazi party more votes?

Why was Hitler made Chancellor of Germany?

How did Hitler consolidate his power to become Fuhrer (all out leader) of Germany?

Part 2- Germany and the Depression

Why was 1924-1929 called 'The Golden Age' in Weimar Germany?

Which international agreements helped to ease tensions between Germany and the rest of the world?

Who was Stresemann? What economic developments helped to stabilise Germany's economy 1924-29?

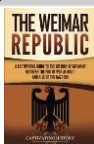

What was the impact of the Treaty of Versailles on Germany?

What political unrest did Weimar Germany experience 1919-1923?

What caused hyperinflation in 1923?

What were the strengths and weaknesses of the Weimar republic?

What difficulties did Kaiser Wilhelm encounter?

What was Germany like under the rule of Kaiser Wilhelm II?

Germany, 1890-1945: democracy and Dictatorship. Part 1- The growth of democracy

How was the Weimar republic established in Germany?

What was the impact of WW1 on Germany?

Your journey starts here!